the victims of the gas explosion at the Capitol on Friday, was much improved last evening. He was somewhat deranged during Saturday, but his physician, Dr. George B. McCoy, now pronounces him out of danger. It was Dr. McCoy who attended Capitain Cutler after the accident occurred and dressed his wounds. A lad named Wm. Reynolds, fifteen years age, while attempting to alight from the 11:45 age, while attempting to angelt from the like train of the Baltimore and Potomac railroad Friday night in front of his home or Maryland avenue, near Thirteenth street, caught his right foot under the wheels, and crushed it so so hadly that it was necessary to amputate it Saturday morning, which operation was successfully performed by Drs. Leach, Boarman and Hazen. Jimmy Monohan became very disorderly on the Island Saturday night, and Officer Daily found saume Saturcay night, and Officer Daily found cause for arresting him. Monohan objected to the execution of the law, and, striking the officer, broke away from him. The officer captured him again, and estiled upon John Johnson to aid him, but Johnson, filled with the spirit of resistance to authority, refused. The officer succeeded in bagging Johnson also and sailed into the station with both in tow.

Officer Bailey, last night, arrested a young Cincer Bailey, list hight, arrested a young colored man, named William Woodson, who several months ago received six dollars from Mrs. Smart, with which to buy some coal. Whether he made the purchase and then stole the coal, or neglected to buy the coal and then stole the money, could not be discovered, as he has carefully kept away from the west end of the city. It was found out after his arrest that on the war to was found out after his arrest that on the way the coal dealer's he was roped into a little game, and, in the hope of whining some money for Mrs. Smart, lost all. This fact will probably not be appreciated when he is brought before Judge Sneit to-day.

NATIONAL JOCKEY CLUB. The Last Day's Running of the Meeting - Five

Good Races. It has been practically demonstrated during the past week that racing upon the District tur may, under the proper auspices, be made as tashionable as it is in any city of this country or of England. The attendance upon the National Jockey Club races has been larger than has ever been witnessed upon the Washington track, and the running upon the higher class of excellence The assemblage of speciators upon the grand stand each day was composed of the very bes classes of society, many of our most distinguished citizens, Cabinet officers, Senators, members and the Diplomatic Corps attending with their wives AN UNSUCCESSFUL AMATEUR DETECTIVE and daughters and giving encouragement to the efforts of the club. This has given the really interesting sport of racing an impetus which wil carry it to a higher standard of respectability than it has ever reached in the District. For this the gentlemen composing the National Jockey Club deserve and have the thanks of the community.

Saturday's racing was the finest of the meeting. the weather beautiful, and a much larger attend ance than upon either Thursday or Friday. There ited, and the scene upon the grand stand was an animated and interesting one, while the quarter stretch was all life and excitement. Five splen did exhibitions of speed, jumping and endurance were given, and altogether the day was decidedly the most satisfactory one of the meeting. THE PIRST RACE.

A dash of one mile, for all ages, for a purse of $200, $100 to second horse, for which Egypt, Kadi and Spendrift were entered, proved a beautiful one. When the race was called considerable stubbornness was exhibited by Egypt, and his backers grew decidedly uneasy when several unsuccessful starts were made, and he still refused successful starts were made, and he still refused to show signs of coming to the scratch. But when the word yo was given he left home like a flash, his head passing the wire a length ahead of Kadi. Spendrift left home hast, but at the first turn he left the rear to Kadi, and struggled hard for the lead, maintaining his distance half a length behind Egypt, with hard work. At the half-mile pole, however, he gained upon Egypt, and until the homestretch was reached, all three horses coing at a shashing tage when Egypt seamed do. the nomestreten was reached, all three norses going at a shashing pace, when Egypt eseemed determined to make amends for his bad conduct before the start, coming down at a tremendous pace, and amply repaying the confidence of his backers by thundering under the wire the winner, Spendrift six lengths behind, and Kadi the same distance in the rear. Time 1:47.

THE SECOND RACE.

for the citizens' purse of $500; a dash of two miles for all ages; $430 to first horse, $100 to second and $50 to third, was next called, and Oxmore. Ealister. Denver, Leader, Jack Trigg and Pairy Queen entered. Considering the number of horses started, a good send-off was given, with Oxmore leading, but the favorite, Enlister, passed him at the first turn—Oxmore, however, regaining his position in the lead up, Enlister helding his own at half a length to the half-mile pole, when he came alongside of Enlister, and until coming down the two proved abust one and the same horse. Denver, who had pushed the two front horses hard, at three leegths behind, had the third position taken from him by Leader at half-mile, and, with Enlister ahead, Oxmore next and Leader third, they flow past the grand stand, and the three; but Enlister showed signs of fatigue upon turning up for the second mile, and Denver, who had been taking it easy behind, now shot toward the front, leaving fourth position to Enlister, and in this way they came toward home. But Leader, seeing home ahead, with one brave cliori, came gallantly forward, leaving everything behind him, passing the wire the winner, Oxmore second, Benver third and Enlister fourth. Time, 3:48. THE SECOND BACE.

THE THIRD BACK. a mile-and-a-half dash, consolation hundleap for horses that had run and not won during the meet-ing, for a purse of $450-$225 to first horse, $75 to second and $50 third—was next called. For this second and $60 third—was next called. For this race the following horses were entered: First Chance. Corriboo, Alton and Nettle B., four of the horses—Jack Trigg. Resolute, Alecto and Billy Monday—having been withdrawn.

A good start was made with First Chance in the lead, Corriboo second, Alton third and Nettle B. in the rear. This position they maintained through the first mile without any material change, but upon entering the second mile First Chance by a strong effort gained another length or two, which he only kept until nearing the half-mile pole, when Corriboo took his place and kept it to the end, coming in the winner by a length, Alton second, First Chance third and Nettle B. fourth. Time, 2473. THE POURTH BACK.

a half-mile dash between King B. and Libbie L., for $100 a side, and after an excellent start, a good race ensued. King Bee falling rapidly in the rear until turning the home stretch, when by a fine burst of speed he came alongside of Libbie L., and they cume home nose and nose, the judges declaring it a dead heat, and announcing that it would be run overafter the last race. Time, $434.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION. The New Organization for the Current Year-

Officers Chosen. Hon. Wm. Stickney having been elected president of the Young Men's Christian Association. and having declined to accept the office on account of the press of his already arduous duties, the association was called upon on Saturday evening to nil the vacancy caused thereby. On consultation it was agreed to put in nomination for re-election E. M. Gallandet, L.L. D., president of the Deaf and Dumb College, who has presided during the past year with so much ability, faithfulness and efficiency, notwithstanding he had declined a reefficiency, notwithstanding he had declined a reelection. He was unanimously re-elected, and a committee composed of Messrs, Foster, Presbrey, Sleigh, Barnum and Oleott was appointed to wait upon him to urge his acceptance of the office.
The list of officers for the ensuing year is as follows, vir. President, Dr. E. M. Gallandet; vice presidents, Hons, Wm. Sutckney and Mathew G.
Emery, and Messrs. A. S. Pratt, O. C. Wight and O. F. Presbrey, general secretaries; A. T.
Stuart, recording secretary; Alfred Wood, corresponding secretary; W. H. Olleott, treasurer: E.
B. Barnum; register, James Meldrum, and librarisn, Columbus Choate.

Several impertant amendments to the constitution was adopted. The association year will hereafter begin with the first of January, instead of the first of April. New committees were provided for on open-air and neighborhood meetings, visitation of the sick and boys' work, which, together with the committee on religious work, of which the general secretary is e.e. office chairman, meeting together once a week for conference.

A nother invertant feature was the procession for ing together once a week for conference.

Another important feature was the provision for a new committee on temperance and the suppres-sion of victous literature, whose duty it will be to hold public meetings, and use such other means as may seem most advisable to prounds temperance and the observance of the Sabbath and to supand the observance of the board of managers press vice.

The organization of the board of managers under the revised constitution will be effected as soon as possible and announced. The association is entirely free from debt and enters upon the new year with renewed hope.

A BOGUS CHECK SWINDLER. Arrest of Potts Seymour in New York.

In January last the jewelry establishments of Carl Petersen and Goldstein & Co. were successfully victimized by a bogus check man. The opera tor visited the store of Carl Petersen, on Seventi and chain for $129, for which sum he gave a check upon the Bank of Washington, drawn in the name of John T. Hood. The man afterwards visited the store of S. Goldstein & Co., at the corner of Tenth and D streets, and purchased a valuable pair of sieeze-buttons and a chain, giving a check for $55 on the National Bankof the Republic, drawn in the same name as the other. When the checks were presented at the banks it was discovered that there was no such depositor as John T. Hood, and that the checks were worthless. there was no such depositor as John T. Hood, and that the checks were worthless.

The matter was reported at police headquarters, and the case was assigned to Detectives McDevitt and McElfresh, who remembered having seen about the town at the time a man who was known to be capable of such an act, and whom, from the description of the man that was furnished, they judged to be the swindler. They learned that their man had gone, and went to Baltimore to look for him, but did not find him there. Major Richards sent a request to Saperintendent Walling, of New York, to keep a lookout for him, and last Friday the Superintendent Walling, of New York to keep a lookout for him, and last Friday the Superintendent Useffer of New York Friday with a United States warrant for the man. In New York the detective found in custody Potts Seymour, alias John S. Hood, alias L. E. Peyton, who consented to accompany him to Washington. Detective McDevitt also recovered the jewelry obtained upon the checks. The detective and his prisoner arrived here late Saturday right, and Seymour was condined at police headquarters. Seymour is considered to be very "crooked," and is known well among detectives "crooked," and Seymour is considered to be very "crooked," and s known well among detectives.

ST. AUGUSTINE'S CHURCH.

Preparing for the Dedication Ceremonies. The new church of St. Augustine's, which is being rapidly completed, will be dedicated or ens have been invited to attend the dedication eremonies, which will be on a grand scale. Father Berotti, paster of the church, extended in invitation a few days since to the Catholic and penevolent societies of the city to participate in the dedication.

societies, including the Knights of St. Patrick, Hibernian benevolent societies and the Catholic temperance societies, was held yesterday at the West End hall to arrange for their share of the ceremonies. As the seating capacity of the church is not great enough to admit of all the societies attending in a body, it was decided that the organizations should be represented by their officers, with Chief Marshail P. M. Kelley and his aids, making, in all, a body of men numbering about one hundred and twelve, who will attend in regalia. Chief Marshail Kelley will act as marshal on the occasion. The representatives of the several societies will meet on the morning of Trinity Sunday at 1 o'clock in the hall of the West End Hibernian Society, whence they will proceed to the church on Fifteenth street. The Knights of St. Augustine will also take a prominent part in the ceremonies. The arrangements for the ceremonies of dedication will probably be completed this week. ocieties, including the Knights of St. Patrick

An Attempt to Levy Blackmail. Last Saturday afternoon a lady residing in South Washington sent the following communica-tion which she had received to Major Richards for his information, with the statement that she ved it to be an effort at blackmall. The let believed it to be an effort at blackmail. The letter was addressed to her, and says:

Mss.—: Permit me to inform you that you are about to be thrown into a great deal of trouble, and that it is within the power of a certain detective to give you information that will save you from that which will make you miserable the rest of your life. Are you willing to pay for the information? If so, answer by the messenger. If you desire, I will call this afternoon, and reasure you that what I say is true. There is no time to be lost. In haste, that what I say is true. There is no time to be lost. In haste,

A Detective Priend.

As no member of the detective corps was cognizant of such a transaction, the superintendent directed-Detectives Sargent and McElfresh to take the case in hand and bring it to a satisfactory solution. These gentlemen went to the lady's bearding-house, and in an adjoining room awaited the pseudo-detective's arrival. Shortly after 2 o'clock he put in an appearance, renewed his statement and domanded $100 as the price for furnishing the information. He represented that he was a detective officer, and what he stated were facts that would transpire unless the money was forthcoming immediately. The signal agreed upon was given, and the two genuine detectives entered from the next chamber, where they had overheard all of the conversation. The young man was somewhat surprised at their appearance, but tried to make light of the affair, which did not appear quite as funny to the officers. He was escorted to police headquarters, where he registered as L. H. Stamburgh, and is held to await a hearing before Judge Snell to-day.

A BRAVE DEED Sergeant Hess Rescues a Child from Drowning Last Saturday afternoon, about five o'clock, con-siderable excitement was occasioned near the Third police precinct station, High street, George town, by a white boy, eight years of age, named Charles Hicks, falling into the canal. The life of to the bottom; but Sergeant Hess, with comto the bottom; but Sergeant Hess, with commend-able courage and bravery, although bore down by his heavy uniform, jumped overboard and succeeded in rescaing the child from a watery grave. The noble officer brought his price ashore amid the plaudits of the crowd that thronged the canal bank, and must have felt amply repaid for his dailing by the namer in which thanks and bless-ings were bestowed upon him by the family of the boy for saving his life.

Excursion of the Neptune Club. Captain Hollingshead, with his elegant steame Arrow, yesterday took the Neptune Club to Mar-shall Hall on a shad-plank excursion. The entire affair was a greater success than the most san guine of the club expected. The trip down the river and back was made pleasant by the efforts of Mr. Morton, who sang several fine solos, and Mr. Ogden, who executed a solo on the violin. At Marshall Hall the party were treated to an ex-cellent dinner by Captain Rodier, which was as great a success and as thoroughly appreciated as any other part of the pleasures of the day. This is the first excursion that the club has ever made as a body, and the organization has made an ex-cellent beginning. During the summer the mem-bers expect to give several excursions of different kinds.

Reading for Taxpayers. Mr. John F. Cook, city tax collector, is busily engaged in the collection of delinquent taxes adertised in the annual list recer The tax sale will commence at his office on the The tax sale will commence at his office on the 13th of June, proxime, and will be continued until all unpaid shall have been sold, in pursuance of law; after which the attention of the collector will be directed towards the settling up of delinquent special taxes for which tax-lien certificates have been issued. This will probably be the last advertised list of this class, and persons holding lien certificates would do well to hand them in to be embraced in the published list.

Loud Words. T. A. Sullivan, of the Grand Union saloon, 414 Thirteenth street, says he keeps the best lager beer, the best whisky and can make the finest mixed drink to be found in the city.
